DRUMALIS

The Enneagram – Understanding Yourself and Understanding Others” with Nano Cluskey, residential weekend course at Drumalis, Larne (4-6 November 2022)

Do you ever feel like you don't understand why you make the decisions you make in life, both big and small? The enneagram is a much-loved system for understanding our personalities at a deeper level, including what energises us and what holds us back. This weekend in the beautiful surroundings of Drumalis invites us to take some time out, to reflect, to understand ourselves better to be able to make better choices. In understanding ourselves more, perhaps we can understand others better too. For further information, please email drumalis@btconnect.com or phone Drumalis during office hours (Mon-Fri, 9 am-5pm) - 028 28276455/028 28272196

THE SYNODAL TIMES

This Advent and Christmas Season is a wonderful opportunity to reach those whom we don't normally see in our parishes and who may not know about the Church's listening and participation process called Synodality.

Our November issue is packed with news and views of Synodality from around the world.

Our December issue celebrates the Nativity as the first Synod where the poor and marginalised, not the great and the good, met the Christ child and were heard.

A POSTCARD FROM ROME

Well-known peacemakers, Fr Martin Magill and Rev Steve Stockman, together with Steve's wife Janice, will be in conversation with the BBC's Jim Fitzpatrick at the Catholic Chaplaincy QUB this Wednesday 2 November at 7.30pm. They'll share the story of their memorable pilgrimage to Rome when, together with a group of students from the Chaplaincy, they met Pope Francis at the Vatican. The Chaplaincy's Choir, Canticle, will provide music and song and there'll be testimony from students. The Chaplaincy will also share news of its ambitious plans for the future. Refreshments will be served afterwards. If you'd like to come along and learn more about how you can support the Chaplaincy's important work with students, you'd be most welcome.

Any item for inclusion in the Parish Bulletin
